Half Your Living Without Money Cost

A right or wrong start in 1917 will make or break most farmers in the South. We are all facing a crisis. This war in Europe puts things in such uncertainty that no man can foresee the future with any degree of exactness.

The sure and certain increase in cotton prices means lower cotton prices next fall. Cost of all food and other products is high, so high that you can afford to buy and expect to pay out with cotton.

There are others to play with to produce all possible food, and to furnish supplies on your own acres to supply the store bill. A good piece of garden ground, slightly planted, slightly tended, and kept planted the year round, can be made to pay half your living. It will save you more money than you made on the best five acres of cotton you ever grew.

Hastings' 1917 Seed Book tells all about the right kind of a money saving garden and the vegetables to put in it. It tells about the field crops as well and shows you the clear road to real farm prosperity. It's Free. Send for it today to H. G. HASTINGS CO., Atlanta, Ga.—Advt.

Dan Cupid Still Working Overtime

Married, by J. B. Newbery, at his residence, January 7, Miss Ida Blackwelder and Mr. John Harris of Liberty.

Married, by J. B. Newbery, P. J., at his office, January 5, 1917, Miss Geneva Wimpey and Walter Hendricks of Easley route 6.

Mr. Rose Mayfield of Marietta route 2 and Miss Cloe Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Williams of Easley, were married December 24, 1916. This young couple has many friends, who extend to them best wishes. xxx

Married, by Rev. J. E. Foster, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Jane Fortner, December 21, 1916, Miss Ida Fortner and Mr. James Phillips, both of the Pleasant Grove section. The groom is a son of Will Phillips, who lives near Greenville, and we understand that the newly married couple will also make their home near Greenville.

Married, by Rev. J. E. Foster, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Ellensburg, December 24, 1916, Miss Josie Masters and Mr. Henry Burgess. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Jane Masters and the bridegroom is a son of W. M. Burgess, who was killed not long ago. All reside in the Pleasant Grove section.

Married, by Rev. J. E. Foster, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Fortner in the Pleasant Grove section, December 24, 1916, in the presence of about fifty relatives and friends, Miss Essie Fortner and Mr. Grover Pace. The bridegroom is a son Henry Pace, near Marietta, where they will make their home.

Miss Mabel Mauldin of Norris and Mr. Edd Littleton of Atlanta, Ga., were married Wednesday, December 27, at the bride's home. R. M. Baker performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by homefolk. The bride is popularly known and her friends, who are numerous, will regret to lose her from the social circle around Norris. Mr. Littleton is a young man of many good traits of character and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Littleton of Seneca, while Miss Mauldin is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mauldin, deceased. Thursday the bride, attired in a midnight blue traveling suit and black picture hat, was very attractive as they motored to the station to catch train No. 39 which carried them to Atlanta, where they will make their future home. They have the congratulations of many friends for a happy voyage thru life. xxx

The Sentinel regrets that it made an error in the marriage notice of Miss Floride Welborn and Mr. Griffin Jameson last week. We printed the bridegroom's name "Johnson," when it should have been Jameson.

Items From The Six Mile Section

Wonder how many of the readers of The Sentinel did not enjoy Christmas? No doubt many. While the most of us entertained friends and were entertained by friends, and having a merry time, others disconsolate from sickness or from the loss of a dear one, were sad, and to my imagination since a heart has been broken and so many earthly jewels borne away by death, the yule-tide season held no great charm for such, but may heaven heal the broken spirit and may the ensuing New Year bring blessings and gladness to all.

The school faculty have resumed work at the academy at Six Mile, while an epidemic of measles is causing a decrease in the attendance.

Cleo Mann of Union, Clarence Mann of Columbia, and Garcie Lee of Greenville, have been spending the holidays with home friends.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Edgar Mauldin and little daughter, Christine, spent a few days with relatives near Norris.

Misses Mae Garrett and Bethel Mann spent vacation with homefolks.

Mr. James Durham who has been very sick for some time, is reported better.

Mr. Anthony Baker has been very sick but is much improved at this writing.

Mr. Marion Evans has two cases of measles in his family, also Mr. R. P. Prince has measles in his family.

Moving is the order of the day in this community and as yet we hardly know where all our neighbors and friends will be located next year.

Girls Outclass Boys in Pig Club Contest

The result in the contest between members of the Pickens county pig club has been announced as follows:

Palma Hendricks, of Easley route 4, won first prize of $10 for raising the largest hog at smallest expense per pound. Hog weighed over 400 pounds.

Annie McAllister, of Central route 4, won second prize of $7.50.

Frances Hunt, of Dacusville, won third prize of $5.00.

Each club member who sent in a report received a year's subscription to a well-known farm magazine.

Altho there were more boys than girls members of the pig club the girls completely outclassed the boys as raisers of pigs.

Rebuilding Oolenoy School House

Oolenoy, Jan. 8.—The work of rebuilding the Oolenoy school building, recently destroyed by fire, was begun last week. The site selected is only a few feet removed from the spot where the old one stood. The contract was let for $3100. The building is modeled from a plan given out by the state. In every respect it will be an up-to-date structure. The spirit that is prevalent among the friends and patrons of the school in meeting this crisis is most commendable. They are bravely resisting the obstacle in the way of the youth of the section. They are nobly building in that they are building better than before, correcting any mistakes and reaching nearer the ideal. And may success attend the effort.

The following young people who spent the holidays here, have returned to their various duties: Miss Mae Jones to her school near Travelers Rest; Miss Pearl Sutherland to G. W. C.; Miss Cleo Hendrix to Central High school in Greenville; Prue Hendrix to Piedmont College; Rudolph and sister, Miss Merle Hendrix, to Pickens graded school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lynch visited the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Edens, Sunday.

Mr. E. E. Mauldin of Easley was here the first of the week.

Game Warden Makes Money For County

The chief game warden of South Carolina has written the following letter to John P. Gant, game warden of Pickens county:

Dear Sir: We closed our books at twelve o'clock December 30. For the year 1916 this department has handled $44,730.08, the same which will be verified by the books of the state treasurer. In 1912, which was the year before I took charge of this department, the total collections were only $1900.00, for the entire year. This will give you an idea of the growth of the department in the last four years. After paying all of the salaries and running expenses of this department and keeping on hand enough to carry us through the season I will have a surplus over an above our needs amounting to $10,542, which amount I am giving to the schools of the state. I am today mailing the county treasurer of Pickens county $294.50 to be applied to the school fund of your county.

A. A. RICHARDSON,
Chief Game Warden S. C.
Pickens county has only been under the game law since July, 1916, when Mr. Gant was appointed warden.

From Mt. Bethel Section

Health in this section is good.

C. C. Grant is visiting at the Pickens mill village.

We have a good Sunday school at Mt. and want the prayers of all.

E. A. Cooper and family, also J. R. Green, are going to move to the Pickens mill.

Allen Edens and sister, Miss Esther, were guests of their brother, James Edens, Saturday and Sunday.

We are sorry to learn that J. W. Grant and family have moved to Calhoun, Ga. We miss them in this section, but wish them well in their new home.

FARMER'S WIFE.

J. Fulton Robinson has been elected cashier of the Easley Bank and jovial George Williams is assistant cashier and bookkeeper. Frank Rodgers now has the place with the express company vacated by Mr. Williams.

The Pickens Sentinel

THE PEOPLE'S PAPER

Only paper published at the county seat of Pickens county.

Official county paper.

Has a larger circulation than any other paper in the county.

Prints all the important legal advertising in Pickens county.

Prints more PICKENS COUNTY NEWS than all other papers combined.

Prints news about people and things you know.

Besides the county news, it prints general and state news, good stories, farm news, Sunday school lessons, articles of especial interest to women, and is an all-round good family paper.

It is THE paper for Pickens county homes.

The Sentinel is the only paper which published the complete tabulated vote of Pickens county in the primary elections last year.

The Sentinel published a nearer correct and complete report of the Toxaway flood damage in this section than any other paper.

The Sentinel was the first paper in South Carolina to publish the news that President Wilson was re-elected.

The Sentinel was first and more correct in publishing many other news articles of importance.

If you want to keep up with Pickens county affairs you MUST read The Sentinel.

Every member of the family will find this paper interesting and every good citizen of Pickens county should have The Sentinel come into his home every week. Make it a member of the family and you will find it will add cheerfulness to the home at very small cost. In fact, it doesn't COST anything, for you get more out of it than you pay for it.

No good citizen can really afford to do without the county paper.

The price is less than 3 cents a week.

The Sentinel tries to be fair, square and impartial to everybody in all things. It believes in the old Jeffersonian doctrine of equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

If you want to patronize a worthy home enterprise and at the same time get more than your money's worth, subscribe for The Sentinel.

Subscription price, $1.50 a year, 75c for six months, 40c for three months.

An Interesting Letter From Mountain View

Yes, the roads are muddy nowadays.

Doc Garrett and family of Toccoa, Ga., are on an extended visit to their many friends and relatives in this section.

Will Porter and family were passing thru this section last week.

Will Porter, Henry Miller, W. P. Stewart, Lonnie Grant and others from this county have moved to Gordon county, Ga. They speak complimentary words of their adopted home.

B. H. Duncan is on a business trip to South Georgia.

G. M. Masters and Naaman James made a trip last week to Greenville on important business.

Rev. C. R. Abercrombie has moved his family to his newly purchased home near Six Mile. We welcome the preacher in our midst.

Rev. Mr. Stringfield delivered a very interesting sermon at Mountain View last Sunday.

Revs. J. E. Merck and Riley Garrett attended services at Martins Grove last Saturday night and Sunday.

We are glad to report that our sick are improving rapidly. Master Frank Pressley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L., has had a severe attack of pneumonia; also little T. W., Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stephens' son, has had several visits from Dr. Woodruff on account of near-pneumonia.

We are glad to welcome the family of Rev. A. Hudson into our thrifty community. He has purchased the old home place of Rev. E. M. Bolding, near the church.

Furman Davis and Bura Evans, who have been employed in Greenville, it is reported, have come back to the farm.

Avery Mitchell, an employee of the Cureton bakery in Greenville, paid a delightful visit to homefolks during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Duncan had for their guests Sunday Mrs. Duncan's father, Mr. Nix, of Mile Creek.

Messrs. Kay Kelley and F. T. Evans were in Walhalla Monday on business.

NEWS-GATHERER.

Christmas Quiet at Peters Creek

Mr. Editor: We will give you a few dots from this side of the county.

The holidays passed off very quietly in this section, there being very little evidence of drinking, in fact, the least we have ever seen at Christmas time.

The Christmas tree at Peters Creek school house passed off very nicely. The children did their part well and their teacher, Miss Wilkes of Fairfield county, saw to it that each one of her pupils received a present from the Christmas tree. Several of the good people from Dacusville were in attendance.

The writer had the pleasure of attending the fish and oyster supper given by the Dacusville camp W. O. W. one evening during the holidays, and I tell you, those Dacusville "choppers" will have a fellow enjoy himself when among them. We hope we may get to attend more just such suppers in the future.

Miss Christine Edens is spending a few days with her uncle, J. M. Turner, of Dacusville, this week.

Annie, the little five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Edens, who has been quite sick, is convalescing now.

Nannie May, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Edens, is quite sick at this writing.

Best wishes to you, Mr. Editor, with your office force and all your readers in 1917.

PROGRESSIVE.

Along Central Route 4

T. T. Cox has a very sick child.

Miss Mittie Alexander of Mile Creek, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Stewart, of Gap Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Murphree with Miss Mattie Louise Kirby, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stewart.

Tommy Oliver visited his sister, Mrs. E. G. Mullinix, at Central during Christmas.

Rev. Frank Murphree has measles in his family.

A SUBSCRIBER.

Postmaster King announces that the receipts at the Easley postoffice for 1916 showed an increase of about 14 percent over the previous year.

Freight receipts at Easley averaged about $21,000 monthly during last year. Receipts during December were over $30,000.

Death at Catechee; People Still Moving

Mr. Will Sutherland, an employee of the Norris Cotton Mills Co., died at his residence on Catechee Hill, Sunday, December 31, about 5 p. m., from pneumonia fever. Mr. Sutherland had just recently changed his life and united with the Catechee Baptist church. Rev. J. L. Willis baptized him just a few months before he was called on to preach his funeral. The writer has known Mr. Sutherland for several years and since he changed his way of living, had some dealings with him. We can truly say we believe he was prepared to die. After he changed his way of living he always had a smile on his face and shunned the things he once seemed to love.

The deceased leaves a wife and two small children. He was about 23 years old. His remains were laid to rest in Camp Creek cemetery. His brother-in-law, Dellus Boren, has been very low with pneumonia, but is some better at this writing.

R. M. Baker, a merchant of Norris, will move with his family to Greenville, in a few days, where Mr. Baker expects to still try his luck at merchandising.

R. M. Kelley, a merchant of near Catechee, and Leonard Moody, a merchant of Norris, will try Central in a few days. The migration still goes on.

Wants More Money for Campaign Deficit

Contributions received by Fred H. Dominick to the $1,000 fund for the deficit in the treasury of the National Democratic committee.

Total receipts by counties to January 6, 1917:

Newberry county	$148.25
Anderson county	94.25
Pickens county	55.00
Abbeville county	32.25
Greenwood county	24.55
McCormick county	None so far
Oconee county	None so far

Total Receipts $354.30

We need $650.00 to make that $1,000. Pickens stood still last week and allowed Anderson to pass her on the list and again take second place.

I still believe that I am going to get at least $100.00 more from Pickens county and I do not believe I am going to be disappointed.

By the way, there are several good democrats of Pickens county who have not been kind enough to acknowledge the receipt of my letter of the 18th of December. I am satisfied that it has been an oversight on their part during the rush of the holiday season, and I hope that I may hear from them during the coming week, enclosing their contributions.

Let's raise this fund this week and be done with it. Respectfully,
FRED H. DOMINICK.
Newberry, Jan. 8, 1917.

Items Along Central Route No. 4

(Too late for last week.)

The holidays were spent very quietly in this section owing to the fact that the weather and roads would not permit much stirring.

Among the visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Childress during Christmas were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Childress, Edgar Clyde of Greenville, Luther and Ray Childress of Anderson.

The Christmas tree at Mile Creek was well attended and many nice presents were received.

Mrs. C. L. Willimon and little daughter, Inola, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Alexander, last Saturday night.

Mrs. C. M. Steele and two children visited at the home of Mrs. J. C. Stewart last Saturday.

Misses Jessie, Bessie and Hixie Alexander furnished music for an entertainment for the graded school at Salem, in Oconee, and also attended the Christmas tree and exercises held at the same place. They report having a grand time.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Porter of Calhoun, Ga., are on an extended visit to Mrs. Porter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Alexander.

Mrs. Guy Haynes left last Sunday for Atlanta where she expects to join her husband, who has accepted a position as motorman on a street car.

Mrs. W. H. Mauldin spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers, in the Picket Post section of Oconee county.

Wishing The Sentinel and all its readers a happy New Year.

'POSSUM EATER.
